An insurance agent was trying to induce a hard man to deal with to take out a policy on his house. After listening to him for an hour while he painted in vivid colors the extreme hard man to deal with said:

"Do you really think it likely that my house will burn down within the time that the policy will run?"

"Certainly," replied he agent. "Have I not been trying all this time to convince you that I do?"

"Then," said the hard man to deal arrangement is not made the Japanese.

"Then," said the hard man to deal with, "why is your company so anxious to bet me money that it will not?" The agent was silent and thoughtful for a moment; then he drew the other apart into an unfrequented place and whispered in his ear:

"My friend, I will impart to you a dark secret. Years ago the company disgraced me before my sweetheart Under an assumed name I have wormed myself into its service for revenge, and as there is a heaven above us will have its heart's blood!"

Champ Clark frequently visited Washington before his election to the house and thought he was pretty well known there. On one occasion, says the Washington Star, he came to the capital on business for a client. He was surprised and pleased to meet an old friend and townsman at the hotel

Mr. Clark had selected for his stay. "Well, well, if it isn't Brown!" exclaimed Mr. Clark. "I'm glad to see you. Is there anything I can do for

Then Mr. Clark took his friend by the arm and marched him to the hotel desk, saying, "I can do you a good turn, anyhow."

"Clerk," added Mr. Clark when they had reached that functionary, "this is my friend Mr. Brown. I want you to treat him right. Let him bave whatever he wants, and if he gets too extravagant and runs out of cash just
